

Town And Village Garden Club Show

WITH "The Gay Nineties" as its theme, the Town and Village Garden Clubs will hold a spring flower show April 22 at Memorial Episcopal Church parish house, Lafayette avenue and Bolton street. The show will open at 2 P.M. and continue until 9 in the evening.

Mrs. J. Triplett Haxall, Jr., of the Town Garden Club, and Mrs. Harry T. Stine, Jr., of the Village Garden Club, are co-chairmen.

The decor of the theme will be carried out by Mrs. Thomas G. Andrew, Mrs. John Carrick, Mrs. Henry W. Keating, Mrs. W. Wall Matthews, Jr., Mrs. L. Baldwin Passano and Mrs. Charles Worthington with Mrs. E. de Witt Battams as chairman.

Head Of Hostesses

Mrs. William Hobson Woody is chairman of hospitality and Mrs. Elizabeth Conrad is head of the hostesses. Properties will be in charge of Mrs. Edward G. Howard, assisted by Mrs. Dorothy H. Howard, Mrs. Edmund Nolley, Mrs. R. Julian Roszel, Jr., and Mrs. Frederick G. Whelan.

The program schedule has been prepared by Mrs. Theodorice Bolling Alfriend. Mrs. Pleasanton L. Conquest 3rd and Mrs. William Wall Matthews are chairmen of specimens. Mrs. John Keene is in charge of classification with Mrs. E. Murray Sullivan and Mrs. Nelson Turner.

Entries for arrangement classes are being received by Mrs. John F. Penniman. Carrying out the "Gay Nineties" theme, "On Our Wedding Day" will be a novice class with yellow predominating; "Floradora Sextet" will have red and white predominant and "Pink Champagne" will be a small bouquet.

Junior Club Classes

The arrangement chairman is Mrs. James McC. Gillet. Mrs. Stuart Lamar Woodward is chairman of judges and Mrs. Roszel, Judges' aides, and Mrs. William Tichnor is chairman of awards with Mrs. Murray R. Perkins and Mrs. J. Southgate Roszel.

The conservation exhibit will be presented by Mrs. John Keene and Mrs. Edward McGinley will furnish a special collection of daffodils. Dismantling will be in charge of Mrs. Worthington Pearre, chairman, and Mrs. John Bosser, Miss Jacqueline Conrad, Mrs. Richard J. Chambliss, Mrs. William Crane, Mrs. David Royer and Mrs. Ernest Stebbins.

For the first time in the show the newly formed Village Junior Garden Club will enter two arrangement classes: The "Easter Bonnet" and "Easter Baskets" under the supervision of Mrs. William H. Emory, 4th. Miss Betsy Tichnor is president of the Junior Club.

Mrs. Woodward is president of the Town Garden Club and Mrs. Howard of the Village Garden Club.

Program On April 30

Meanwhile, many flower and garden enthusiasts here are interested in the Wilmington Garden Day which is being sponsored by the Women's Auxiliaries of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Cathedral Church of St. John and Immanuel Episcopal Church in Wilmington. The eighth annual program will be held on April 30.

The beneficiaries of the Wilmington Garden Day, with its our of 24 gardens, will be St. Matthew's Community Center and St. Michael's Day Nursery. Buses will leave the Cathedral Church of St. John at 9.45 A.M. Reservations may be obtained through Mrs. Seymour W. Brainard, 311 Irving drive, Brandywine Hills, Wilmington.

Miss Mary Bogue Mahony and Mrs. Pleasanton Conquest 3d (from left) will participate in an April 22 flower show.

Mrs. Henry Keating, Mrs. Murray R. Perkins and Mrs. D. Worthington

Sunpapers photos—William Klender
Pearre (from left) are members of a committee arranging the flower show.